Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following document:

D1: EP-A-0 740 002 (BERKLEY & CO INC) 30 October 1996 (1996-10-30)

1 Claim 1 - Novelty (Article 33(2) PCT)

- 1.1 The document D1 is regarded as being the closest prior art to the subject-matter of claim 1, and discloses (the references in parentheses applying to this document):

A process for making a monofilament-like product from at least one strand of polyolefin fibres, comprising the steps of exposing the precursor to a temperature within the melting range of the polyolefin for a time sufficient to at least partially fuse adjacent fibres and simultaneously stretching the precursor at a draw ratio of at least 1.0.

- 1.2 The subject-matter of claim 1 therefore differs from this known process in that the strand is a spun yarn made from polyolefin staple fibres.
- 1.3 The subject matter of claim 1 is therefore novel (article 33(2) PCT).

2 Claim 1 - Inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT)

- 2.1 The problem to be solved by the present invention may be regarded as being to improve the tensile strength of a monofilament like fishing line.
- 2.2 The solution to the problem proposed in claim 1 of the present application is considered to involve an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT), because in the available prior art it is neither known nor suggested to use a precursor yarn made from staple fibres.

3 Claims 10 and 11 - Novelty (Article 33(2) PCT)

- 3.1 D1 is also considered to represent the most relevant state of the art concerning independent claims 10 and 11.
- 3.2 The distinguishing feature between these claims and D1 is the same as set out in point 1.
- 3.3 Therefore the subject matter of claims 10 and 11 is novel (article 33(2) PCT).

4 Claims 10 and 11 - Inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT)

- 4.1 The argumentation in point 2 applies equally to claims 10 and 11. Therefore claims 10 and 11 are considered to involve an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT).

5 Dependent claims

- 5.1 Claims 2 - 9 are dependent on claim 1 and as such also meet the requirements of the PCT with respect to novelty and inventive step.
